Campus Life

The expansive Darlington campus surrounds a small lake with bell tower, and is home to the Lower and Upper School academic buildings, Zelle Fine Arts Center, Kawamura Science Center, and the McCallie-Kennedy Student Center. The sports complex includes the Memorial Athletic Stadium, various fields for softball, baseball, soccer, and lacrosse, and tennis courts. Students reside in 6 English-style Boarding Houses on campus (3 male & 3 female) in mostly double rooms, with dedicated live-in Dorm Parents.

Activities

Students are always busy with after-school activities and clubs, athletics, community service opportunities, and fun weekend excursions! International students can try out for Junior Varsity (JV) athletics in their first year, and then Varsity in their second year. Other club sports including Running and Disc Golf.

Sports

Athletic Teams include: Baseball (boys), Basketball, Cheerleading, Cross Country, Football (boys), Golf, Lacrosse, Soccer, Softball (girls), Swimming & Diving, Tennis, Track & Field, Volleyball (girls) and Wrestling (boys). Special Academy programs available in Tennis, Golf, and Soccer.
